About Marmma

At Marmma, we work with natural stone from the source, overseeing every stage of the process, from extraction and transformation to customization and distribution. With our own quarries, production facilities and sales points, we offer reliable, agile and precise solutions for projects that embrace a new approach to building: more sustainable, more genuine.

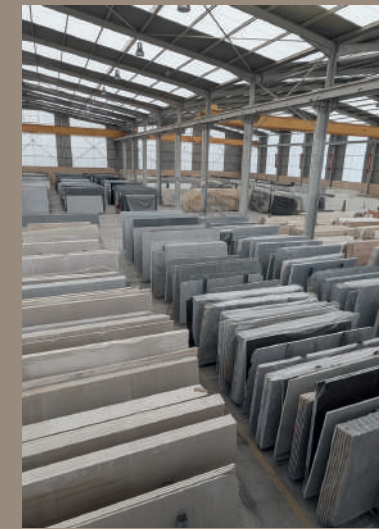

Our work is grounded in a rigorous, traceable process and a strong commitment to quality. Marmma operates through three dedicated divisions:

Blocks

Raw block sales for industry professionals.

Slabs

Supply of slabs for fabrication and distribution.

Projects

Tailor-made solutions, special pieces, and personalized support.

Manufacturing Facilities

We operate three production plants equipped with advanced technology, where we manufacture custom pieces to the highest standards of quality, traceability, and sustainability, including the reuse of waste materials for secondary applications.

- O Porriño, Galicia (Spain) -
- Cadalso de los Vidrios, Madrid (Spain) -

Customer & Distribution Centers

Our locations in O Porriño, Carballo, and Manresa provide personalized support, product displays, and direct distribution. All of our facilities are strategically connected to major ports, ensuring agile and efficient logistics for both national and international projects.
